

We offer placements in a wide range of disciplines at Queensland Health Hospitals and will try to accommodate your first preference where possible. Current opportunities are outlined below.

Please note:

- Placement coordination is undertaken by the Placements team on behalf of the applicant.

Disciplines Available
Intensive Care
Infectious Diseases
Respiratory/ Thoracic
Geriatric and Rehabilitation Medicine
Cardiology
Rheumatology
Obstetrics
Thoracic Medicine
General Surgery: Breast/Endocrine, Hepato-Biliary/Pancreatic, Colorectal, Upper GI, Maxillofacial, ENT, Neurosurgery, Acute Surgery, Plastics, Trauma, Urology, Burns, Vascular and Orthopaedics
Urology
Cardiothoracic Surgery
Renal Medicine
Endocrinology
Clinical Pharmacology
Oncology
Radiation Oncology
Haematology
Palliative Care
Anaesthetics
Pain and Rehab
Paediatric Specialties including Renal, Respiratory
Child Psychiatry
Neonatology
Neurology
Mental Health
Orthopedics
Gastroenterology

These disciplines are available within a wide range of the Queensland Health Hospitals within south East Queensland, including the below:

Please note:

- Any hospitals north of Rockhampton are managed by the James Cook Electives Program. Please see the link to the JCU website: <http://www.jcu.edu.au/medicine/>
- The below link will show you where hospitals are located via the Queensland Health website: http://www.health.qld.gov.au/workforus/profiles/QH_region.asp

Hospitals Available
Royal Brisbane and Women's Hospital
Queensland Children's Hospital (formally Lady Cilento Children's Hospital)
The Prince Charles Hospital
Redcliffe Hospital
Caboolture Hospital
Mater Hospital
Redlands Hospital
Princess Alexandra Hospital
Greenslopes Private Hospital
Queen Elizabeth II Hospital
Ipswich Hospital
Rural Locations may be possible by negotiation