

FREE Teaching and Learning Conference DETAILED PROGRAM

Date: FRIDAY 5th November 2010

Location: Queensland Rugby Club, Ballymore Rugby Stadium, 91
Clyde Road Herston – Murrayfield Room

Time: 9:00 AM – 5.00 PM

Structure of the day:

From 9:00: Coffee and registration

9:30 – 11.20: Keynote presentations + Panel Discussions on Assessment:

Dr. Hamish Coates: “Generalisable Assessment of Medical Students”

Prof. David Wilkinson: “Why Generalisable Assessment is Important for the School”

Dr. Tracey Papinczak: “Implementing an Integrated System for Programmatic Assessment in the MBBS Program”

Dr. Heather Alexander: “Where to from here in Assessment in Medical Education?”

11.20 – 11.50: Morning tea with simultaneous poster viewing and mini Slides-show*

11.50 – 1.05 pm: 2 Break out groups, papers grouped in following clusters:

Assessment

- Ms Patricia Régo & A/Prof. Ray Peterson: Ensuring Clinical Skills Competence through Reducing Extrinsic Cognitive Load
- Dr. Marie-Louise Dick, Dr. Nancy Sturman, Drew Moore: Roll out the Role-Plays: an excellent means of providing clinically relevant learning and formative assessment
- Bavahuna Manoharan/Mr. Andrew Hutchinson: Quality Clinical Assessments – a Student's Perspective
- A/Prof. Charles Mitchell: Certainty-based assessment
- Dr. David Emmett: Confidence based marking for UQ Medical Students

Curriculum (which combines: Vertical Integration, Communication skills, What makes a Good curriculum and Global Learning)

- A/Prof. Charles Mitchell: Prescribing as a competency Med School
- Dr. Lisa Gotley: POLIE Paediatrics online interactive education
- Dr. Nancy Sturman: Paying Top Dollar and the Student Version: The Ethics of Clinical Teaching
- Dr. Andrew Leggett: The Princess Alexandra Hospital Balint Professional Development Project"
- Ms. Libby Black: Creating educational work practices based on evidence – developing an evidence based model for Medical Education Units in Qld Health hospitals – a qualitative study.

1.05 – 1.45: Lunch

1.45 – 3.15: Back to Break out groups, Assessment and Curriculum, followed by 2 technology papers at the end of each of these streams

Assessment

- A/Prof. Lindy McAllister: Maximising learning outcomes for students undertaking international health electives.

- Dr. Leanne Ratcliffe: Comparing the mini-clinical evaluation exercise (mini-cex) with existing workplace assessments in a tertiary level emergency department
- Dr. Jenny Zhang, Patricia Régo,, Raymond Peterson, David Wilkinson and Malcom Parker : Analysis of the interview as part of selection into medical school using generalisability theory
- Dr. Nancy Sturman: Clinician Assessments: To grade or not to grade? An exploration of GP Clinical Teacher views about assessing students.
- Dr. Lisa Gotley: : Basic Sciences in Action
- Dr. Jenny Moffatt: Continuing quality improvement in the discipline of rural and remote medicine

CURRICULUM

- Dr. Phil Towers: The Community Patient Volunteer program at SoM Ipswich
- Dr. David King (presenter), Dr Marie-Louise Dick, Patricia Régo, Dr Tina Janamian, Dr Tracey Papinczak, Assoc Prof Ray Peterson and Dr Drew Moore : Improving Lectures – Combining student and peer-review of lectures.
- A/Prof. Ian Yang: Learning in the clinical setting (LICS): a pilot study at the Northside Clinical School and Rural Clinical School
- Dr. Margaret Henderson (presenter), Dr. Marie-Louise Dick, David King, John Buckley, Tina Janamian, Susan Garside, , Glynn Kelly, Geoff Mitchell: Vertical Integration in Teaching And Learning (VITAL) in General Practice
- Dr. Mark Coulthard: Surgical videoconference
- Dr. Rebecca Hyde: Computer-Based Learning - An Enhanced Learning Experience?

3.15 – 3.40: Afternoon Tea with simultaneous poster viewing and mini Slides-show*

3.40 – 4.00: Mr. David Emmett with platform presentation: “ A Vision for eLearning in the School of Medicine”

4.00 – 4.40: Key messages from the day/Conference Synthesis and “fun session”

4.40 – 5.00: Wrap up and Thank you, followed by drinks

Posters and mini-slides show presenters:

1. Dr. Nancy Sturman, Ms. Patricia Régo, Dr. Marie-Louise Dick: Love and Time: An exploration of GPs' motivation for practice-based medical student teaching, and the difficulties encountered Poster/Curriculum
2. Dr. Nancy Sturman: Tricky Questions: Exploring the use of a scenario-based Clinical Ethics and Professional Practice (CEPP) assessment tool for assessing student competence in the CEPP domain in the General Practice Core Clinical Rotation Poster/AX
3. Dr. Christopher Edwards: High fidelity pocket simulation in the emergency department Poster/Technology in education
4. Ms Sarah Dahl: Online professional development for busy clinicians Poster/Technology
5. Dr. David Levitt: The use of high fidelity simulation to teach common, acute paediatric emergency skills to fourth year medical students. Poster/Technology
6. Ms. Laurel Hatfield : Feeding the Grassroots: Support of Clinical Teachers (improving teaching capacity in clinical units) Poster/Curriculum
7. Ms. Brownyn Williamson: Intern only education – A rose by any other name (integration of student and resident medical officer teaching) – Poster/Curriculum
8. Ms. Karen Mulitalo: Educational Tools using voice over internet protocols to increase communication and real time teaching in distance education curriculums Mini Power Point Presentation/Technology
9. Susan Graham: Interdisciplinary, interactive rehabilitation seminars for 3rd year medical students. Poster